

National
Foundation
Center

GLOSSARY FOR THE LESSON 5

CLOSSARY FOR THE LESSON 5

abort - to stop a process before it has finished accelerate - to start to drive faster airline -a company that provides regular flights to places aisle - a passage between the lines of seats or goods in a plane, church, supermarket, etc anecdote - a short story that you tell someone about something that happened to you or someone else anonymous - not giving a name board - to get on a bus, boat, aircraft, etc chaos - a situation where there is no order at all and everyone is confused consequence - the result of an action or situation, especially a bad result controller - someone who directs the work of other people convention - a large formal meeting of people with the same interest or work co-pilot - second pilot courtesy - behaviour that is polite and shows respect, or a polite action or remark crew - the people who work together on a ship, aircraft, or train customs - the place where your bags are examined when you are going into a country, to make sure you are not carrying anything illegal cut-price - cheaper than usual damage - harm or injury declare - to announce something publicly or officially delay - to make something happen at a later time than originally planned or expected departures - the act of leaving a place, especially to start a journey to another place distinctly - different and separate events - something that happens, especially something important or unusual exit - the door or gate that you use to leave a public building or place force(v) - to make someone do something that they do not want to do fumes - strong, unpleasant, and often dangerous gas or smoke imposing - looking big and important in a way that people admire incapable - not able to do something or to feel a particular emotion incapacitated - to make someone too sick or weak to work or do things normally luggage - bags and cases that you carry with you when you are travelling major - more important or more serious than other things or people of a similar type martial arts - one of the traditional Japanese or Chinese skills of fighting, done as a sport in western countries nap - a short sleep navigation - to find the right direction to travel by using maps or other equipment notorious - famous for something bad poisoning - an illness caused by eating, drinking, or breathing a dangerous substance porter - someone whose job is to carry other people's bags in hotels, stations, etc